COMMUNITY CAREGIVERS WELCOMES HILL AS EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT

ALBANY, NY (December 13, 2010) -- Community Caregivers, a Guilderland-based non-profit that helps individuals of all ages maintain their independence, dignity and quality of life within their homes and communities, has named Jennifer Hill of Niskayuna executive assistant.

In her new role, Hill, who has a strong background in marketing management and communications, will work closely with the executive director, as well as provide public relations support.

She joins Community Caregivers from Association Development Group, where she provided management services for the Insurance Brokers' Association of the State of New York and Women in Insurance & Financial Services. Prior to that, she spent three years as a marketing and special projects manager for Latham trade publisher NTP Media.

Hill's non-profit experience also includes service as senior games coordinator for the Agency on Aging and Community Services in Lafayette, IN, where she oversaw 21 athletic and ceremonial events for 850 participants.

She holds an undergraduate degree in liberal studies from Regents College, State of New York (now Excelsior College).
